DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-4 and 6-8 are in the application. Claim 5 has been canceled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-4 and 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, sub-paragraphs (a) – (d) recites the structural parts forming the device providing a “biomechanically correct pedal powered paddling system for small watercraft”. These parts include most of the structural components that comprise the invention. With reference to sub-paragraph (e), it is not particularly clear what comprises the (means of simulating the biomechanical motion of conventional arm powered paddling”.

In claim 6, line 2, there is no proper antecedent for “the simulation of the natural paddling motion”.

In claim 8, line 2, the dependency includes a reference to claim 5 which has been canceled. This makes this claim indefinite. In line 3, it is not clear what is meant by “while synthesizing the biomechanical motion”.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
